

Please forward this no cost opportunity to all teachers. Thank you!

NATIONAL PACIFIC ISLANDER EDUCATION NETWORK

“Uniting the resources of the village to strengthen families, the community and to promote educational excellence.”

COLLEGE/CAREER READINESS SPEAKERS

For more info. visit
www.npien.com

To schedule a NPIEN
GUEST SPEAKER
for your class, club
or event, contact
VICTOR THOMPSON
562-544-3385

2021-22 Falanai Ala VIRTUAL GUEST SPEAKER PROGRAM

Falanai Ala was a Facilities Manager in the Long Beach Unified School District, past NPIEN president, and one who believed in providing role models for Pacific Islander students, as we are underrepresented in many professions.

Professional Speaker/Mentor	Expertise
Heather Heleloa	Communications, Hospitality & Tourism
Shirley Arceo	Cerritos College
Kalani Heinz	UCLA Graduate Student, President Hawai’I Daughters Guild
Meghan Blanco	Attorney
Dr. Keith Camacho	UCLA Professor
Vaka Faletau	DCFS
Donny Faaliliu	Expanded Learning
Chris Maumalanga	Business/Professional Athlete
Audrey Aofia Kawaiopua Alo, MPA	Health Advocate and Community Supporter
Holly Barker	University of Washington Oceanic collections
Sean Cully	Long Beach City College
Megann Jenkins	Long Beach City College
Emalina Thompson	Rutgers University, Mason Gross School of the Arts
Ben Raju	Regional Director, Small Business Association
Juiliann Anesi	UCLA Assistant Professor of Gender Studies
Dr. Victor Thompson	Aloha Music and Mindfulness

We are a Pacific Islander education organization that serves the Pacific Islander community. Although our particular focus is on Pacific Islander students, we will help any student or community pursue their educational goals.